

Farewell Nette

Nanny's Eulogy

Mum, Lynette Fraser or Nette as we all know her was born in Sydney on the 7th May 1947.

She was the 5th child born to Richard and Edna May Fraser, her older siblings being Uncle Dickie, Uncle Lindsay, Aunty Betty, Aunty Joanie and her younger siblings Aunty Wendy, Uncle Colin and Uncle Greg.

Mum lived all her premarital life at their family home at 21 Napoleon Street Mascot, and attended Gardeners Road Public School and then J.J. Cahill Memorial High School, Mascot.

Mum worked as a book binder being employed by Conpress Printing in Alexandria.

She played ten pin bowling being in a team with her father and her cousin Kenny Standen as he lived with them for a few years in Mascot and apparently she was a pretty good bowler!!

Mum met Dad—Peter Ross Hepburn in either Delegate or Bendoc after the death of Allan Legge, whom she dated for awhile, Allan was a friend of dads.

Dad apparently was a frequent visitor to their house in Mascot, turning up in his ute and often staying for the weekend, sleeping on their old night/day lounge and when Kenny would come home to Delegate to visit his parents, mum would often come with him.

Mum and Dad married on Saturday 4th October 1969 at the Knox Presbyterian Church at Mascot and had their wedding reception at Coogee and according to family mums parents approved of the relationship because they knew dad was a 'good bloke.'

Mum and dad made a life for themselves at Lower Bendoc just down the road from where dad grew up and what a great life it became when they had a family starting with me—Kylee May born on the 3rd April 1971, then Darren Peter Richard on the 7th August 1973 and to top it off Melanie Jean arrived on the 2nd December 1975.

Mum was a devoted mum, we never had a lot but we never went without.

She came to all our school events, supported us with our sports and interests and became Aunty Nette to a lot of kids, our home always seemed to have a few extras in it, be it kids or adults or both, everyone was welcome!

We had a great childhood with a great mum as family was very important to her.

Mum had many friends, was on a few committees and was also tangled up with a few clubs, she played tennis and later on her and dad played darts and loved it.

Our family holidays were mostly always spent at Tamboon with Uncle Ernie and friends and she always enjoyed that.

But besides Dad, mums greatest love and joy in her life was her grandchildren Mathew, Dylan, Kurt, Taylor and William,

She was immensely proud of them all, they were her angels and now she is theirs.

Dearest Nanny we all love you so very much and are going to miss you more than words can ever say, you will be in our hearts forever.

Rest in peace, love you Nanny.

Go Go Rabbitohs!!!!!!

Nette's Daughter Kylee kindly allowed us to share this beautiful Eulogy with all our readers and our heartfelt sympathy and condolences goes out to her and all her family.

HAVE A GIGGLE!

A little silver haired lady calls her neighbour and says, "Please come over here and help me. I have a killer jigsaw puzzle, and i cant figure out how to get started,"

Her neighbour asks, "What is it supposed to be when its finished?"

The little silver haired lady says, "According to the picture on the box, its a rooster."

Her neighbour decided to go over and help with the puzzle.

She lets him in and shows him where she has the puzzle spread all over the table.

He studies the pieces for a moment, then looks at the box, then turns to her and says, "First of all, no matter what we do, we're not going to be able to assemble these pieces into anything resembling a rooster."

He takes her hand and says, "Secondly, i want you to relax. Lets have a nice cup of tea, and then," he said with a deep sigh.....

"Lets put all the Corn Flakes back in the box!!!!"

Aussie Facts

- 750,000 camels roam our deserts, the largest number of purebred camels in the world!
- The average Aussie will consume 165,000 eggs in his or her lifetime.

Household Hint

Stop the tears flowing when peeling onions, especially with large quantities for pickles etc. Peel and cut onions in half , place in a plastic bag in a single layer and put in freezer. When frozen (usually a few hours), remove from freezer, allow to defrost a little and slice with a sharp knife. Voila!

Brush-tailed Roack-wallabies smile for the camera

New cameras capable of capturing colour images at night are helping authorities identify and track the threatened Brush-tailed Rock-wallaby in the Snowy River National Park.

Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning (DELWP) Senior Biodiversity Officer, Marc Perri said: “The Brush-tailed Rock-wallaby is listed as threatened in Victoria, with less than 30 naturally occurring animals in the Snowy River National Park in East Gippsland and five translocated animals in The Grampians.

“Up until now, monitoring, which includes checking and tagging the animal for health and population numbers, has normally been done using cage traps where the animals are tempted into the traps using lucerne hay as a lure.”

“The trapping has been supported with the use of other techniques including genetic analysis of their faeces and remote sensing infra-red cameras that recorded a black and white image of this nocturnal animal.”

“While these cameras enable the population to be counted, colour imagery has been needed to help identify individual animals from their coloured tags and fur markings.”

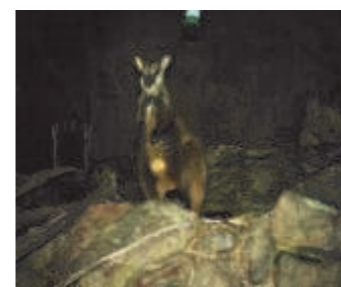

“The new cameras, jointly funded by the Victorian & Commonwealth Governments, use a white light flash to produce a good quality night photo, providing us with critical missing information for the first time.”

Since the cameras were purchased in 2014 they have been used for two monitoring sessions. The cameras are placed in the field for three weeks at 24 locations in the Snowy River National Park. A lure of lucerne hay is placed in front of the camera to attract the wallabies and photos are taken while they are busy eating or sniffing at the hay.

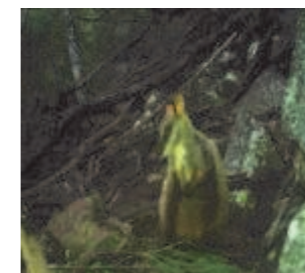

Rena Gaborov of Wildlife Unlimited said the information collected has been better than expected: “The quality of the colour images is excellent—out of thousands of photos taken we have very few where we cant identify the animal.”

“This means that the tagged animals can be identified and we are better able to determine the sex of untagged animals, collect information about pouch young and young at foot as well as see some really interesting social behaviour.”

“The opportunity to use these new cameras means we can still collect important information to help us make management decisions while reducing the impacts on Brush-tailed Rockwallabies from frequent trapping and handling.”
